

LET YOUR DREAMS
TAKE FLIGHT

Rockford AirFest 2010

JULY 31 - AUGUST 1, 2010

AIRSHOW DEMOGRAPHICS

Who Goes to Air Shows?

Air shows help you reach into some of the most difficult and hard-to-reach markets: large numbers of well-educated adults with young families. Approximately 75% of the audience at air shows has at least some college education. Nearly 64% report annual household incomes of $50,000 or more. Though the average age of an air show spectator is just under 39, more than 51% of all adults attending air shows in North America are between the ages of 30 and 49.

By the Numbers

52% of spectators spend more than 4 hours on air show grounds.

- 61% are Male
- 39% are Female

Air Show spectators are willing to travel...especially to see a military jet team like the Thunderbirds!

- 49% less than 20 miles
- 29% 21-50 miles
- 22% 51+ miles

Get Results!

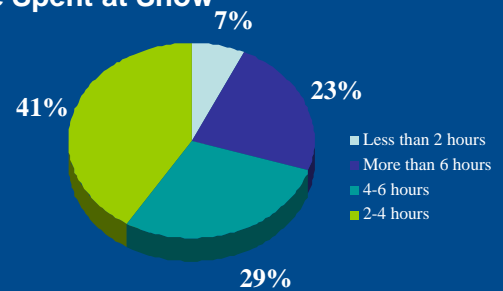

Check out the reasons why sponsoring AirFest 2010 can help your business:

- Increase Brand Loyalty
- Create Awareness & Visibility
- Change/Reinforce Image
- Drive Retail Traffic
- Showcase Community Responsibility
- Drive Sales
- Sample/Display Brand Attributes
- Entertain Clients & Staff
- Recruit/Retain Employees
- Merchandising Opportunities

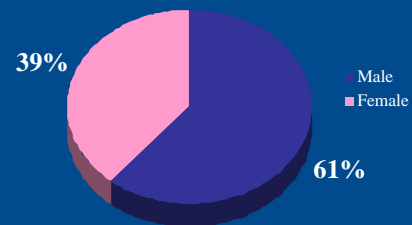

“Air shows are likely to grow even more popular with marketers as they learn of the events’ unusually broad-based demographics and fan loyalty.”

Adweek Magazine

Time Spent at Show

Demographics by Sex

Demographics by Sex

