

The lights, the displays, and the shows at Christmas time in Branson are fantastic! With the Christmas season starting in November, Silver Dollar City is amazing with lights outlining ever building and decorations at every turn. The shows at Silver Dollar City all have a holiday theme and they have professional actors for some of their main productions. In Branson City, many of the shows have homey Christmas themes for their shows and the shopping is great! Branson at Christmas time is awesome!